TALKS ON FARMING TO BE GIVEN BY A. & M. MEN.

Several W. T. Faculty Members Join Train and Assist in Giving Lectures on Work.

The Santa Fe Farm and Home special train which is being operated by the Santa Fe railway in cooperation with the Texas Agricultural and Mechanical College will arrive in Canyon at 9 o'clock Saturday and remain until 12 o'clock.

Four cars of exhibits are carried by the train, an up-to-date agricultural and livestock show of interest to every farmer and livestock grower in this territory, carrying a message of greater profit and better living. The exhibits include dairy and beef cattle, hogs, poultry, angora goats and sheep.

The program includes talks by experts from A. & M. College on the problems that face the farming industries in West and northwest Texas today. The College has in the course of many years developed a practical and broad program for better and safer farming, lower production costs, and a balanced farming system for the entire year.

After the speaking program the people will have the opportunity to pass through the train and inspect the varied exhibits provided by A. & M. College. J. B. Fox Announces For Commissioner Precinct No. 3

To the taxpayers of Randall County, and especially the voters of Commissioners Precinct No. 3, I am announcing my candidacy for Commissioner from this precinct.

I have lived in this county for twelve years, and have made a close study of all economic conditions affecting the taxpayers of the county, and believe I am in a position to render aid in reconstruction following this awful depression we are having at this time; I have had considerable experience in road building and maintenance, and besides have made a study of every other branch of county government affecting the taxpayers of the county.

I am in favor of completing the highways through the county as designated and approved by the state highway commission, and then arranging all county lateral roads so as to give the taxpayers the quickest and best access to the state highways through the county. I am in favor of classifying all county roads in Randall county for maintenance purpose. I am in favor of having all labor used on state and county roads, through Randall county done by resident taxpayers of Randall county as far as it is consistent to do so. I am in favor of reducing all salaries of all county officials, and employees as far as is consistent with good and efficient government, then placing this saving from reduced salaries to reducing of the taxes of the county. I feel sure taxes can be reduced, and at the same time maintain the high efficiency of government we now have. The present high taxes and high cost of government is having a demoralizing effect on all business and industry of the county, and the taxpayers have a right to demand adjustment to meet our present conditions.

Taxes on lots of property in the county are delinquent for two years or more, and lots of taxpayers have sacrificed their very necessities of existence to meet these high taxes which can be reduced and must be. I solicit your vote and support on this, my platform, and if elected will assure you, you will not regret the way you voted.

I have no mushy politics to spread on, and to not want the office if it takes that to be elected.

Fred Stone Will Come to Amarillo on April 16th

Fred Stone, for years one of the most brilliant of musical comedy stars, is bringing his brand new show, "Smiling Faces," to Amarillo for matinee and night performances on Saturday, April 16.

This announcement was made yesterday by Wilbur C. Hawk, who booked the attraction. "Smiling Faces" is touring under the direction of the Messrs. Shubert.

Stone rose to prominence as a member of the famous team, Montgomery and Stone, appearing in "The Wizard of Oz," "Jack O' Lantern," and other successes. When Dave Montgomery died, Stone struck out for himself.

Stone is noted for his insistence that not a single line go into any of his shows that is in the least "shady" or risque. He is devoutly religious, and even blase New York respects him for a first class performer who can pack his houses without offering anything smutty.

In "Smiling Faces," one of Stone's daughters, Pauline, will be seen. There are other noted principles in the cast, and a big company of 75 pretty girls.

Tickets will be reserved by writing to Mr. Hawk, care of the News-Globe, enclosing stamped envelope with remittance. Prices are $1.00, $1.50, $2.00, $2.50, and $3.00.

BUSINESS HOUSES WILL STAGE EASTER HUNT SATURDAY P. M. FREE PRIZES IN ALL STORES

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE TO DIRECT THE ACTIVITIES—CITIZENS OF COUNTY ARE INVITED TO SANTA FE TRAIN AND TO THE EASTER FESTIVITIES

Saturday, March 26, promises to be the biggest day in Canyon so far this season, according to plans being made by the Chamber of Commerce.

The Santa Fe Special Farm and Home train will be in Canyon for 3 hours Saturday morning, and should draw a large crowd of visitors here from the surrounding territory if the weather is favorable.

For the afternoon the Chamber of Commerce is arranging a big Easter Prize Hunt. Merchandise prizes will be offered by the various business firms in Canyon and those who come to Canyon Saturday afternoon will have an opportunity to join in the hunt for these prizes.

Beginning at 1:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon, numbers will be posted in all stores offering prizes and those stores offering more than one prize will post as many numbers as prizes are offered. At the same time all persons who wish to join in the Prize Hunt will assemble at the band stand on the east side of the court house and numbered cards will be passed out. Then those persons who are given cards must hunt in the various places of business, for numbers to match the one on their card. Those holding lucky numbers will win valuable merchandise prizes. The person who holds a card the number of which corresponds to the number in some store offering the prize will be the winner of that prize provided their claim is made Saturday afternoon.

Everyone present at that time will have an opportunity to win one of the many prizes and the only identification necessary to get the prize is to present the proper card bearing the number identical to the one posted in the store. No person will be given more than one card.

Cards to be passed out will be worded as follows:

EASTER
PRIZE HUNT
March 26
No.
Sponsored by
Chamber of Commerce,
Canyon, Texas

All anyone has to do to join in the big hunt is to go to the band stand at 1:30 and get a numbered card. The hunt gives promise of being the outstanding event of the season.

Those in charge of the arrangements stated last night that although the prize list was far from complete, that indications led them to believe that the prizes would exceed a hundred dollars in total value. It was stated that a number of the business firms who have not been solicited, will be called upon before Friday night at which time it is expected to have the list completed.

The prize hunt will not be confined to those firms just around the square but those entering the hunt will be urged to look everywhere for lucky numbers. Several of the business firms in the East part of town near the college campus will offer prizes to the lucky hunters on Saturday.

Man for Whom Cooley Canyon Was Named, at Borger

E. C. Prichard had the pleasure of locating Thos. Cooley in Borger Saturday. Cooley is the man for whom Cooley canyon is named and stated that he assisted in cutting the timbers in the Palo Duro for the erection of the old T-Anchor headquarters, one mile north of Canyon, which is now property of the state.

Mr. Prichard accidentally fell into conversation with Mr. Cooley, who is now blind. When the town of Canyon was mentioned, interest on the part of Cooley picked up, and he started in to recall the early days, before there was a town, and his experiences on the T-Anchor. He asked about many of the old timers in the county, including R. E. Baird, W. F. Heller, G. C. Bram, J. L. Prichard and many others who do not live here now, but regarding whom Emmett was able to give him information

Mr. Baird states that none of the old time citizens have heard from Mr. Cooley in many years, and was surprised to find that he was a nearby neighbor.

Cooley was 88 years of age last month. He has been blind for about three years, but it hale and very spry, states Mr. Prichard.

Brewer Neal To Represent Army in Track

Another Canyon boy is making good in the sports field in the person of Brewer Neal, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Neal of Canyon, who has been selected to represent the United States Army in running the mile and half-mile in the Olympic contests to be held in Los Angeles in August. He is now serving in the U. S. Army at Brooks Field, San Antonio.

Neal is a former track star of Canyon High school. According to information received he has been running the mile in 4:20 despite muddy tracks, the half in well under two minutes and the quarter consistently around 50 flat.

He has been transferred to March Field in California where he will work out under the direction of service trainers. He will also attend several track meets over the country via airplane.

Neal takes an active interest in other sports and was football coach at Brooks Field the past season.

Miss Whitehouse To Visit Mrs. E. F. Page Soon

Miss Helen Whitehouse, a national field-worker for the young people's organizations of the Episcopal church will be in Canyon April 1, 2, 3, as the guest of Mrs. Elizabeth Fry Page of the Little House of Fellowship.

Miss Whitehouse is spending several months visiting colleges and mission churches of the Southwest. Having recently received her M. A. degree from the University of Chicago, she is in close touch with the college world today.

While in Canyon she will visit the college and the various churches. On the evening of April 2, Mrs. Page will hold open house in honor of Miss Whitehouse, and students and other friends will be invited to call.

Canyon Again Gets Excellent Fire Rating

This is the maximum credit rate allowed any city by the commission and is based on a three year fire record. Canyon has held this rating for a number of years, which speaks well of Canyon's citizens and the city's fire department.

ANOTHER YEAR!

With this issue of The News, Volume 36 starts.

Thirty-five years' of Canyon's history has been recorded in nineteen hundred and twenty issues of this newspaper. Most of the record has been highly pleasing. There have been times when unpleasantness found itself into the public print of the community, but on the whole, the printed record is a highly enviable one so far as The News is concerned.

For nearly 22 years the management of The News has not changed. During this period a wonderful growth has been witnessed in Canyon, and the development has been a most pleasing thing for those who have been fortunate enough to be citizens of Canyon during that period of time.

To most of our citizens, probably all of them, the present is one of the most trying of their lives. It is said that from every period of depression the world arises stronger and better and sets forth with a higher ambition and greater determination for things of the right. Canyon has not lost heart. Its citizens are still looking to the future—a brighter future. The present trial of purification may be the thing which all of us most need. At least, let's look to the future for a brighter day, and not reflect upon the gloom of the past, except in so far as we may garner the truths and lessons which guide us in building a better city.

The News greets you on its birthday, and pledges anew our faith in Canyon, in its good people, its institutions, and to every movement which shall make of this a better town.

The News has been asked to express an opinion on the subject of "The claim of youth on the country as regards the crime wave." Without doubt the youth of America has a right to except more of the "land of the free and the home of the brave," than the present epidemic of bootleggers, high-jackers, racketeers, gamblers, thieves, etc., which infest the land. American ideals have gone by the boards, so to speak, and the very worst element is in the saddle. Where the blame lies is hard to say. The police officials are charged with corruption by the citizens. The police retaliate that the citizens will give the police no assistance, that they show maudlin sentiment over the criminal, when he is apprehended, and will set him free if he is ever brought to trial. The boy and girl who wants to make a good citizen by obeying the laws have very few examples among their elders who break every law in which they do not believe, and cuss the officers for not enforcing the laws against the fellows whom they do not like. The youth of America deserves something better if they are to be the stalwart type of Washington, Lincoln, Roosevelt, Wilson—the kind of men to whom Americans point with pride as examples for the youth of the land. But they are dead. Have their ideals gone with them to the grave? There are too many living examples of the other kind of men and women, living in every community and known to the citizens of every community, who have no regard for the memory of the noble ideals of these dead, and have no concern as to what shall be the goal of the youth of the land. What may we expect of the youth of tomorrow, when the youth of today is living under present conditions which are contaminating the ideals from which noble citizens should arise?

Pat Neff revolts again. In fact the ex-governor is in constant revolt against his two co-workers as members of the Railroad Commission. This time Pat says that he was not shown the order denying the cotton trucks the use of the highways until the order had been promulgated by Terrell and Smith and given to the press. This is not the first time that Neff has charged that these two have stepped on his righteous toes. As a result, it was stated last week that he would not resign from the commission to accept the presidency of Baylor University, but would attempt to elect a man suitable to himself and that the two would run the affairs of the Railroad Commission to the embarassment of Lon Smith. However this rumor was quieted Sunday by the acceptance as head of Baylor, and Col. Ernest O. Thompson of Amarillo will likely succeed him on the Commission. The News is opposed to the re-election of C. V. Terrell on the Railroad Commission, as he has shown he doesn't know what it is about. He plays politics to the detriment of the duties of the office. However, we agree in principle to the ruling of the commission last week regarding the heavy cotton trucks. Neff states that he attempted to keep the trucks off the highways two years ago, but the other two members, Terrell and Smith, granted permits to every applicant. Now that they have made a mess of the sitation, they would do injustice by refusing all permits. Yes, these are busy, interesting days under the big dome down at Austin. The election promises to be one of the hottest Texas has seen in recent years.

Short selling and gambling on the stock market will be prohibited some of these days. The other day wheat dropped 4 cents because congress refused to submit the question of prohibition to the people for a vote. Had the bill passed, we presume that wheat would have hit the dollar mark in expectation that a dozen or so years hence the breweries would open, at least open so far as the law was concerned, and that some more wheat would start through the breweries down the throats of the thirsty public. Then came the suicide of a couple of big old worn out financiers, and stocks tumbled. These fellows had more influence on the market dead than they did alive. Bucket shops are running in Texas, in violation of the law, so those opposed to them state, and all have more or less bad influence on the prices quoted on the stock market. Were not stock gambling so prevalent, it would not matter. Were it confined only to those who sit on the exchange warming seats that cost them from $300,000 to $750,000 for the privilege of being a really high classed gambler, it would make no difference. But it would be no particular fun for these few just to skin each other. That would soon become tiresome. Suckers must be provided, and it seems an easy matter to get a big crop. Twenty-three millions of people lost heavily in the crash of 1929. Some of them lost everything they had; most of them lost that which they could not afford to lose. It is time that something drastic be done to stop this whole-sale robbing on the stock market, for it cannot well be classed otherwise.

The News received last week a communication from a candidate for the city commission, raising the question as to whether water rates could not be lowered and at the same time tax rates not increased. The News knows nothing about the question, but simply took the facts, as presented by men who have given years' of study to the city's conditions. All of them agree that if the water rates are lowered, then tax rates must eventually go up. Several years ago the News got all hot and bothered about the high water rate of Canyon and started a campaign for their reduction until all of the facts were presented by men who had made a thorough study of the question. We were convinced htat we were wrong. Perhaps the city could go for a few months on a lower water rate without raising the tax rate, but from observation in other cities, it would be very uncomfortable for members of the city commission to attempt to increase tax rates under present conditions, or even add a sewer charge, which is the rule of practically every city on the plains. Leaving well enough alone when the welfare of the entire community is involved is a pretty wise policy, rather than tampering with questions regarding which there is a great uncertainty as to future results.

Regardless of the result of the poll of the Literary Digest on the liquor question, America will not return to the saloon days. When there was state's control, the wets believed in local option, which in terms of the anti was a saloon on every corner. Now that national prohibition has been handled so poorly by the Republicans, the wets say return to local option, without the saloon, but deep down in their heart every one of them longs for the return of the brass rail, saw dust and red nosed bartender who was one of the most disreputable characters in the town, hiding behind the legality of a disreputable business.

Its a pleasure to live in a territory served by the Santa Fe Railroad. There is no railroad on the face of the earth which takes such an active part in the development of its territory, and making conditions better for the people which it serves. The Santa Fe gives the best of service at all time, and under all conditions. It becomes a part of the community which it serves, and is ever awake to projects which will assist in the development of its territory. The demonstration train which will visit Canyon Saturday is only another project which will help this section. Visit the train Saturday morning. There will be something of interest to every citizen.

The Dallas News of last week paid high tribute to Senator Clint C. Small and took the position that he had announced his candidacy for re-election to the senate, and would not run for Governor. The conclusions of the News were without foundation. Senator Small has not announced either way so far as his political aspirations are concerned. Grape vine advice from Austin the past week has it that Governor Sterling has definitely decided not to seek re-election and that Senator Small will, during this week, make his announcement for Governor.

Bill Murray said a mouthful the other day when he said that more people were more interested in getting something to eat than in getting booze. Bill is wise in many respects. He is wasting a lot of time, money and talent in trying to get himself nominated for the presidency on the Democratic ticket. He has a full man's size job over in Oklahoma, and had better stay over there and do his work.

Come to Canyon Saturday. The Santa Fe Demonstration Train will be the big feature of the morning while the business houses will make this a gala occasion in an Easter Festival. You will be amply repaid for your time spent in Canyon Saturday.

The Difference Between Cold and Comfort

The striking of a match and the turning of a valve is the only difference we may immediately realize. But to produce comfort instead of cold requires several hundred miles of pipe lines and an army of men who work diligently at their task of furnishing you with good gas service.

Gas Service

Eternal vigilance on the part of all employees is necessary to insure you against discomfort in such weather as the recent cold waves. Daily in the face of beating storms, through ice and snow and over wind-swept roads, employees carry on—for on them is the responsibility of preventing an interruption of the unfailing gas service you have come to expect.

OIL LINE Broken...

He Drove His Loaded Truck 45 miles with a DRY CRANKCASE

When Jack Edmondson halted his 2½-ton Chevrolet truck in a Conoco station in Des Moines, New Mexico, the attendant discovered a broken oil line and an empty crankcase!

But inspection of the motor revealed that no damage had been done!

When Edmondson returned home, he discovered, from oil spilled on the road, that he had driven about 45 miles after the oil line broke on the "Hidden Quart" of Conoco Germ Processed Oil.

You may never break your oil line and drive with an empty crankcase. But remember that if you use oils not Germ Processed, which drain away during idle periods, you are running your motor under "dry crankcase" conditions every time you start. Only Germ Processed Oil actually penetrates and combines with metal surfaces. And only Germ Processed Oil gives you the protection of a "Hidden Quart" that stays up in your motor and never drains away.

The "Hidden Quart" cuts down starting wear, saves gas and gives your motor longer life, with fewer repair bills. It assures safe lubrication at all times.

Change to Conoco Germ Processed Oil at the sign of Conoco Red Triangle.

* * * * *

We neither encourage "dry crankcase" experiments nor guarantee success under all conditions. But unsolicited letters from motorists, now in our files, tell of this and hundreds of other runs with empty crankcases but without damage.

For City Commissioner

DR. H. A. BROWN

At the earnest solicitation of his friends, Dr. H. A. Brown, has consented to announce as a candidate for the office of City Commissioner.

Briefly stating as his objectives: The most economical administration possible with the consistent growth and development of the city and the welfare of the citizens as a whole. Equitable distribution of priviliges and labor to all, partiality toward none.

He promises to become more familiar with the needs and desires of the people, with the view of eliminating any friction between institutions and individual welfare.

City Laws and Government should be like clothes: "They should be made to fit the people they are meant to serve."

He leaves his campaign in the hands of his friends and desires only the good of the citizenship as a whole, but insists that everyone express themselves at the polls. Bad officials are elected by good citizens who do not vote.

(Political adv., contributed by friends of Dr. Brown.)

TO THE VOTERS OF CANYON

There are basic issues we endorse, to-wit:

1. Strict economy.
2. Lower taxes—estimated 20%.
3. More liberal water service.
4. Lower Public Utility rates to city and patrons.
5. Maintaining efficient fire and police departments.
6. In employment: the principle of Anti-Nepotism law, and "merit-system" should obtain.

(a) Home taxpayers considered first.

(b) Perdiem of committees or boards, three dollars.

7. Street service reorganized; to use more men lessening "Dole System."
8. Open Forum meetings (suggested) quarterly.
9. Oppose sale of water system.
10. Any new adventure "Pay-as-we-go" policy should feature.

An aggressive commission can make the above program function for Canyon's good, morally and economically. Shall it be done.

Blue and Beige Will Predominate in Spring Fashions

INSTEAD OF SHARPLY CONTRASTING COLORS, MANY NEW SUITS WILL USE DIFFERENTLY WOVEN FABRICS OF SAME COLOR TO GIVE APPEARANCE OF RICHNESS

BY HARRIET

BLUE and beige will lead in the spring styles this year, as to colors.

Black and white combinations, than which there never are any smarter ones, will come a close second, and greens follow as eminently suitable for spring.

If you like things a little different, there are light wine tones that are high-styled this year and combine beautifully with beige accessories to give them an even lighter appearance.

It is a grand year for women who like to sew and have clothes that are adaptable to change. One of the new three-quarters or long coats with skirt to match can have any number of blouses to change it and even a printed dress to make it summery.

Suits will probably be the lead for spring. These suits look like dresses, so sleek are they. They often will be worn for dresses, buttoned up over just a gilet in case it gets too warm. Or worn with such a fragile little open-work blouse that the coat may be kept on.

There is a tendency to get away from fur about the neck. But most necks are covered this spring. The more unusual your scarf collar, the better the style of your dress, suit or coat. Plain necklines abound over which big taffeta bows will be worn, in cats' whiskers fashion, sticking out so that they show on both sides of your face, from the rear.

Sleeves and shoulders are up to all sorts of tricks this year. Short, puffed sleeves have a habit of making arms appear shorter and waists look more slender. Such sleeves are very demure without giving up the smallest amount of their sophistication. If you want to have real charm up your sleeve, choose long, large, full sleeves that have so much extra material in them that your economical nature may rebel at first. But they are worth it. Such sleeves remove inches from the waist and hips.

Long, tight sleeves make arms appear thicker and longer. They are dangerous unless your arms are the type that can stand more inches both ways.

Buttons, which are in much demand for decorative touches, are marching in rows. Up sleeves. Down skirts. Here and there on blouses. Small buttons remove the appearance of excess weight. Large buttons add to it. Especially if they gleam and glisten. Buttons which are covered with the same material as your coat or frock are much more slenderizing.

• • •

FABRICS are much more important this year than they ever have been. There is a great vogue for having different woven materials of the same color combine to give richness, rather than have too much contrast in color. Lacy ribbed tweeds, in wool, are used for high-waisted skirts and the little blouses are the same shade but of open-work knitted wool, or fine ribbed silk, in what is called silk jersey or in some other handsome silk fabric.

One of the smartest of black and white combinations is a little suit that follows the style for bows but makes them very unusual, one black one, white-faced, to fasten the military collar, and one white one, black-faced, to fasten the belt of the coat. The white one and the white facing of the black one are of soft suede.

This suit is a lovely diagonal wool, with a wide wale and lacy work in between. The skirt is cut with the needed flare and ends just 12 inches from the floor, the approved length. This built-up skirt has a white batiste blouse atop it, with double rows of very small black buttons up the front, and down the outside of the diminutive sleeves that end well above the vaccination mark.

For the beige spring outfit, this one has the popular three-quarters coat, with three-quarters sleeves, in a soft wool crepe, and tops a matching beige dress, the skirt the color and fabric of the coat, the top of it a very fine silk jersey with long sleeves protruding from the furred cuffs of the coat. The fitted coat has a collarless neckline and you can either wear it that way or fling a gay scarf about your neck.

JUNIOR EDITION

VOLUME NO. 6 — CANYON, TEXAS, MARCH 24, 1932 — NUMBER 28

Rep. C. W. Warwick Presents Gift

Representative Clyde W. Warwick presented the book, "Complete Texas Statutes, 1928" to the Canyon High School library. It covers the revised civil and criminal statutes of 1925 together with the statutes of a general nature enacted subsequent to 1925 at the regular and special sessions of the 38th, 39th and 40th legislatures, a table of session laws, and a table of correspending articles from revised statues 1879, 1895 and 1911 to present compilation. The book was published by the Vernon Law Book Company in Kansas City, Mo. The school greatly appreciates this favor from Mr. Warwick.

Class History

In football and basketball the little "fish" tried to do their part. Some of the girls came out for basketball the entire season hoping to be on the main team the following year.

A hard fight was put up by these freshmen to get Marie Landers, class queen, crowned.

As sophomores this class kept up their fight and really go somewhere. Two members, D. B. Pearson and Leonard Brasuel, lettered in football and several more were regular subs.

Marie Landers was run for football queen.

Maxine Middleton and D. B. Pearson were the celebrities for the carnival queen and king. Although the sophs were beaten again they did not give up.

Many members of this class took part in debating, declaiming and dramatics. D. B. Pearson declaimed at the district meet. Louise Wester, Ogden Stroud, Robert Black and Maxine Middleton were in the one-act comedy presented in the contest. The former three took parts in the three-act play "When a Fellow Needs a Friend" and Robert Black and Ogden Stroud were in the contest play entered in the district meet.

Mignon Greer was elected football queen, but was defeated by the seniors. When the Seniors sponsored the school carnival, Louise Wester and George Brasuel were class queen and king.

Spanish Club

In the regular meeting of "Cecirull Castillano" Monday the members answered roll call with a Spanish proverb, as we find this a good way to learn more proverbs.

Junior Student Interviews W. R. Clark on C. of C. Trip

I first received the idea of a personal interview with Mr. W. R. Clark when we were talking about interviewing interesting people in English class. I decided to interview Mr. Clark because he is a very prominent character in the affairs of West Texas. He was a delegate to the National Organization of Chambers in Washington, D. C., near the beginning of the current year.

I secured an appointment with Mr. Clark. We were to meet at a local drug store. I arrived before the set time because I did not want to be late as I did not know Mr. Clark.

When Mr. Clark came in, I did not know him until I heard some one call him "Wallace;" then I walked up and asked him if he was Mr. Wallace R. Clark. He replied in the affirmative, and we walked to the rear of the building to talk.

Mr. Clark, whose hair is turning to silver color, is a small man of below medium height. He was dressed in a suit which did not reveal that he was a music teacher or civic leader, but emphasized the fact that he is a golf player. We wore a pair of khaki pants, a large blue cotton shirt of which the collar was turned up, a cap which set low on his head and almost hid his face. He wore large shoes, the heels of which clicked as he walked.

My first question was, "What was the purpose of this Chamber of Commerce meeting in Washington?" "This meeting, " he replied, "was called for the purpose of solving some of the problems which are confronting the American people during this depression."

"How were the delegates to this conference selected?"

"The most prominent men of the Chambers of Commerce of the United States were suggested by a national official of the Chamber of Commerce to the manager of the organization of chambers," he replied.

"Now I guess you want to know why I was selected," he asked, to which I affirmed.

"As you well know the West Texas Chamber of Commerce is the largest organization of its kind in the world. As I have been a director of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce for six years, the manger of organization of chambers selected me because he thought I understood the situation of the Southwest. Then too, the manager wanted delegates who were connected with some phase of education. This is another reason why I was selected," he explained.

"Mr. Clark, did you find this work with the Chamber of Commerce very interesting?" I asked.

" Yes, it is very interesting work. I like it very much because I like to study the questions that confront the people every day."

"Do you find it as interesting as your educational work," I asked.

"I do not, because edcational work is my professional work, while this is an amateur work for men," was his reply.

"Was this meeting a success?"

"Yes, it was very much of a success because it offered solutions for the problems that are confronting the people dring this duepression."

Mr. Clark was asked if the Chamber of Commerce has been a help to the people during this depression.

"Yes, it has been a great help in the securing of employment for the unemployed."

"Are people taking a bigger interest in the chamber of commerce now than they did when you became connected with it?"

"Yes, ten years ago at the convention there was nothing but a bunch of druken ballyhooers who went to have a good time. Now they go to decide upon economic questions and conduct business. Very rarely is there a ballyhooer."

"Mr. Clark, didn't the Chicago Chamber of Commerce help reduce crime in that city?"

"Yes, in ten months after they set out to help round up the gangsters and bootleggers, Chicago was reduced from the first place among the crime cities of the United States to twenty-second place. There are similiar instances in Milwaukee and Buffalo."

"Has the depression affected the musical phase of education?"

"I would say probably it is affacted more than any other one phase. Music teachers who do private teaching and can do nothing else are very hard hit, because private teaching has become very sparse."

Mr. Clark then asked me what was the purpose of this interview. I explained that it was for our English work and as I am especially interested in journalism this seemed very interesting to me. He said he would be glad to help me at any time on either the subject of music teaching or Chamber of Commerce.

I thought the interview very interesting because there are not many men who have the honor of filling the positions that Mr. Clark fills.

SENIOR PLAY.

The Senior class is staging a three act comedy "The Woofenpoof" by George Milton Savage an April 8. The characters are working hard on the play and expect to "put it over big."

Through this play they are raising money for their gift to the school.

Well-known humorous magazine, bankrupt, goes out of business. Well, we can still fall back on the Congressional Record.

Juniors Active in School Activities

The Junior class has several promising athletes for the football and basketball teams for next year.

Juniors who were members of this year's football squad were: Leonard Brasuel, regular tackle, and D. B. Pearson, regluar quarter back. Those who substituted were: Truett O'Donald and Sam Cochran, ends; George Brasuel, tackle; Robert Black, half back; Ogden Stroud, quarter; J. M. Black and F. A. Thomas, centers.

Leonard and George Brasuel were two husky tackles, doing especially good work on the offensive and very few yards were made over either of the boys.

Pearson played every minute in all the games of this season, being given honorable mention for the all district team.

Austin Cone played guard on this year's basketball team. Several times has Austin pulled the Eagles into the lead.

D. B., a regular forward, has played on the team for two years and had honorable mention for the all-district basketball team.

Robert Black and Pat McCormick, who played as substitutes, are expected to make the next year's team.

There were three girls who played as regulars on the basketball team. Eulalie Moore, a regular forward, was high point scorer of the team. Vera Koger, from Amistad, N. M., played as guard, a place which was well filled. Wilma Harris ran center and was a very competent player.

Boys' Debate Tea wins Over Friona; Girls Are Defeated

The two debate teams, girls and boys, debated the Amarillo teams March 16 in Amarillo. Both Canyon teams were defeated, but have hopes of gaining the victory next time.

The Friona teams came to Canyon Saturday. The Canyon girls were defeated but the boys team won the decision of the critic judge.

Junior Society

The activities of the Juniors during the past year have been many and varied. The first activity of the year was a hayride given by the Juniors and Seniors. The students rode out to Knight's pasture where they ate their supper.

On Oct. 30 the Juniors had a Hallowe'en party in the high school gym. Fortunes were told and games were played. Refreshments consisted of apples and candy.

Before school was out for the Christmas holidays the Juniors had a Christmas tree. Nothing that cost over 15 cents could be bought for a fellow schoolmate. After the fun of the period was over, the gifts were put in a box to be given to the White Christmas tree.

The Junior Box Supper was given Feb. 23 at which Mr. Stroud was auctioneer. The money gained from this was used to support the carnival queen.

The class intends to go to the Horst fishing grounds for a moonlight picnic Tuesday night if the weather is pretty.

Scouts

Thistle Troop No. 2 of the Girl Scouts met Wednesday. The Scouts went to their Patrol Corners upon arriving. Then a two minute Patrol meeting followed The meeting was called to order by Miss Goodrich. She told of plans for an all day in the canyons. This was cheered with enthusiasm.

The program was in charge of Fredda Charles Bills, who told of a Lone Troop in Florida. Nell Slayton told of a Spice trip a troop was taking, and Mary Lee West told of another Lone Troop. The program was concluded with a game in the gym after which sandwiches were served.

Grade Student Wins Contest

Martha Frances Campbell, a member of the second grade, was awarded first prize for piano solos, for the seven year old group in the Panhandle Musical Festival held last week end in Amarillo. This is a great honor as there were ten contestants from over the Panhandle besides Martha Frances.

Chapels

The chapel program Thursday was in charge of the Dramatic Club which is under the direction of Miss Doris Loudder.

The Dramatic Club presented a one-act play "The Bank Account" which was used in the Interscholastic League play contest by Canyon high school. The students taking part in the play were: Robbie Lee Foster, Mary Mae Harrison and Dale Bowman.

This play was presented in chapel the day before the League contests began, and we are very glad to say that the Canyon cast survived the first round of the contest but bowed before the Stratford cast in the second round.

The chapel period Tuesday was taken in seating the students in alphebetical order according to classes.

Home Room

The Junior class has been having some interesting home room programs. The home room sponsored by Miss Dickenson has recently taken up the study of vocations and will continue a discussion of this subject through most of the other programs.

At the next home room meeting Opal Pool is going to discuss truck farming in the Rio Grande valley.

The following week Ogden Stroud and Robert Black are going to study the vocation of law.

Miss Jordan's home room has been hearing of the travels of different students. At the last meeting Fannie Mae Russell told of a storm on the coast of Corpus Christi and R. J. Hurst told of an agricultural trip to Texas A. and M. and Galveston.

WHY SHOULD GIRLS GO TO COLLEGE?

This time of year many Junior and Senior girls are considering the advantages and disadvantages of attending college. Year after year the mothers and daughters of America are realizing that it is not only necessary for young girls to go to college from the educational standpoint, but also because of the girl's happiness and welfare. They are discovering that girls need the stimulus, the discipline, the knowledge of college and college life, before they are capable of making the most of their opportunities.

First in the girl's mind comes happiness. Everyone wants "a good time," a good time does not always means now what it will in later years. But during the four college years a young girl is forming new friends. When she is out of college and looks back on those four years she wants to look upon them as the happiest period of youth.

Before entering college a girl has formed most of her friendships among family acquaintanes, church and neighborhood girls and boys. These friends have had a tendency to have the same ideal, thought and opinions. When she enters college, she comes in contact with many types of people and if she is quick and intelligent, she finds her own ideals slowly changing and forming into broader and more profitable ones.

There are many different professions for a girl to choose and different branches of preparation for her profession. If she is interested in chemistry, journalism, teaching or finance, there are many special courses to prepare her for her career. If she has no interest in the business world and wants a home, she may enter the Home Economics department.

A girl who has attended college has every advantage over one who has not—in her business career, her domestic and social life she is better prepared and can be more helpful and intelligent in dealing with people she comes in contact with. Each girl should consider carefully before giving up a college education.

The old-fashioned boy was too big for his trousers and now the new styles make one believe the reverse.

PROCLAMATION.
By the Mayor

The week of April 3 to 9, inclusive, has been designated as SPRING CLEAN-UP WEEK.

There are many reasons why the Spring Clean-Up Campaign this year should receive the enthusiastic support of every man, woman and child. First, because a city that is clean and beautiful creates cheer and banishes gloom. Cheer produces courage and confidence, and no doubt, most of us are badly in need of both of these attributes at this particular time. Second, because every dollar in property destroyed by fire, which so frequently is the result of "careless" housekeeping in the home and in the average place of business, is a serious drain upon our present economic condition. Third, because every job created in connection with Clean-Up Campaign not only develops better fire protection, but supplies better sanitation and pulbic health. It creates an atmosphere of encouragement.

NOW THEREFORE, I, R. A. Bellah, Mayor of the City of Canyon, do hereby designate the week of April 3 to 9, inclusive, as SPRING CLEAN-UP WEEK and most respectfully call upon all departments of the city, the Chamber of Commerce, Civic Clubs, Patriotic Clubs and our people in general, to take an active part in this Clean-Up Campaign.

I further designate the Fire Marshal and Fire Chief as a committee of two to work with the City Officials in promulgating active committees to carry on this campaign and ask the co-operation of all our people in this enterprising community for a clean city.

In testimony whereof, I hereto sign my name and seal of office, this the 17th day of March, 1932.

R. A. BELLAH, Mayor,
Canyon, Texas.

Attest:
HARVEY CASH, City Secretary.

BURROW AMEND CRAIN

A SAFE TICKET FOR THE CITY COMMISSION

Why Experiment

The City of Canyon is in no condition to try out new experiments. It is no time to elect men of untried qualities so far as business administration is concerned. Conditions are too dangerous to jump out into the unknown as presented by men who are untried in the school of hard knocks and experience.

Canyon Is Safe

Canyon is safe at the present time because of its able, conservative administrations of the past. Burrow, Amend and Crain are the same types of men who have accomplished Canyon's sound condition. They are the type of men who will not sacrifice Canyon's reputation for the sake of personal gain or for the desire to win for themselves a reputation. Their reputations for honesty, and square dealings go unquestioned in Canyon. Let them apply the same business sense to the city as they have demonstrated in their own businesses.

Hold Down Expenses

Burrow, Amend and Crain have just one thing in view for Canyon—to hold down expenses to the lowest level, give the city a safe and sane administration, and if possible reduce taxes. They have promised no one a job and are promising no one a job. They are not hiring or firing anyone until they have an opportunity to look carefully into the city's affairs and analyze its needs. They promise to start the program of retrenchment by reducing their own salaries to $5 per month, and will expect to reduce all running expenses to a minimum.

Against Bond Issues

They are opposed to the city going in debt any further under present conditions. Emergencies might arise making a bond necessary, but no new projects will be sponsored by the City Commission, if they are elected, and every bond that is possible to be paid off will be retired in order to save the city interest. They will seek to give the city an efficient government, at the lowest possible price.

Who Are These Men?

C. R. Burow, lumberman. A resident of Canyon for 33 years. He has made a success of his own business. He served on the first City Commission, and before that was City Treasurer. He knows the city's needs.

W. S. Amend, farmer, stockman. Has been a citizen of Canyon for 15 years. He has been connected with several business enterprises, and owns considerable property in the east part of Canyon. He is willing to give of his time to serve the community.

H. W. Crain, farmer, stockman. He has lived in Canyon for 10 years. He has taken an active interest in all affairs in the city, and knows the needs of a safe, sane, conservative City administration, and will work harmonously with the other two.

The record of these men and their citizenship speaks for them.

All work will be held at the Christian Church. About eighty students completed work during the winter quarter and will secure credits from the International Council of Religious Education. The discussion group held last quarter for students of Religion and Bible will continue through the spring term. This group was led by W. L. Vaughn.

Dr. Albert Barnett is chairman of the board that is sponsoring this work, and S. H. Condron is Director of the School of Instruction. Teachers for the new quarter include: W. L. Vaughn, Educational Program of the Church; Miss Ruth Lowes, Primary Materials and Methods; Mrs. C. E. Strain, Junior Methods and Materials; Irby Carruth, Organization and Administration of the Sunday School; Dr. F. M. Darnall, Story of the English Bible; Miss Angie Debo, High School Methods and Materials; Mrs. Geraldine Green, Recreation and Leadership; Rev. L. R. Hudson, The New Testament.

STORK SPECIAL

Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Foster are the proud parents of a 6 lb. girl born Wednesday, March 16th. The little miss has been christened Jerry Anne.

G. C. Fitzgerald visited with relatives in Breckenridge between terms.

L. N. George Says—

Thus far five hundred thirty-five teachers have told me to expect them in Canyon this summer. Of the above number one hundred twenty are in families and these families will bring a number of children to our town and school. Above thirty per cent of the folks that I have on my list have never been here to school. At this rate four or five hundred people will be in Canyon this summer on whom we must make our first and possibly most lasting impressions. Twelve or thirteen hundred others will be here who are more or less already sold to our community. As I see it, it is up to us to resell ourselves to them and keep them boosting for us. This is not a pipe dream nor a matter of guess work on my part. I have traveled several thousand miles and checked on prospects rather carefully. I realize what it means to over estimate and disappoint you homefolks. I also know what it means to be the cause of strangers coming here and having them disappointed. We simply must put our best foot forward and this hour is none too early to begin.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Sadler and Mr. and Mrs. Burke of Amarillo have just been in the office planning for summer work.

Two years ago the first of this month Irby Carruth from the ex-student association, W. A. Warren from the Canyon Chamber of Commerce and President Hill from the College were selected as a committee to launch a program of increasing the attendance of our College. I was selected as a fieldman for the project. The first job was to better organize the W. T. ex-students. The county unit had been used and seemed to be the best method to follow. There were sixty two members in the association but they were anxious to work hence we put them to it. Now we have about eight hundred boosting the college in an organized way. Twenty eight counties have their presidents and are having their annual W. T. round-ups. Fellow teachers and high school seniors are being directed towards W. T. by our ex-students more and more. When our students now in school go with me they resell the college to the old time exes. In one instance two exes were listening in while an enthusiastic freshman was telling his year-behind-schoolmates about the big-hearted teachers in old W. T. When he finished both exes were in tears and one immediately wrote her major professor here and thanked him for what he had done for her.

We find families every week who are planning to move to Canyon and put their children in our good schools. There are several calls for small tracts of land where cows and chickens can be kept.

This work is merely started and our summer attendance will convince the most skeptical of its value.

EPISCOPAL CHURCH

Next Friday, from twelve to three o'clock, there will be held at the Episcopal Church, the solemn service of "Three Hours of Devotion," commemorating the three hours when Our Lord hung on the cross. This service consists of appropriate hymns and prayers and of meditations upon the Seven Words spoken by Christ from the cross.

Dr. F. M. Darnall, lay reader of the church, will conduct the service, and the meditations will be given by Rev. Frank T. Charlton, Rev. C. E. Jameson and Rev. L. R. Hudson. One may come and go at any time during the service, if it is not possible to remain the full three hours. All Christians are invited to unite in this memorial, and the offering taken will be for the work among the Jews at Jerusalem, which is a very important work, and is sadly in need of funds.

Easter services will be held on Sunday evening, March 27th at 8 o'clock. Rev. E. E. Madeira will preach and there will be appropriate music. Everyone interested is invited to attend.

Billie Hill, Mrs. Fitzgerald Win In Piano Ensemble

Mrs. Margaret Gamble Fitzgerald and Miss Billie Hill were winners in the piano ensemble playing contest for the winter quarter which was held March 11.

Those entering the contest were members of two regularly scheduled ensemble classes. In the fall quarter Miss Gwendolyn Black and Miss Elizabeth Croson were awarded the decision of the judges.

Such a contest and program will be held by the piano department at the end of each term and persons who are interested will be welcomed.

Miss Wanda Struve of Amarillo spent the week end with Miss Lorena Frieze.

Many Successful Newspapermen Once Worked on Prairie

Work on The Prairie as reporters or department heads may have proved an inspiration for budding journalists since staff members have continued in the field and have been accorded honors in their departments. The fact that many of these journalists that have brought honors upon themselves came from the same group of staff members was brought to the attention of this campus with the selection of Deakins Wells, editor of The Wellington Leader, as editorial columnist on the mythical All-American Weekly Newspaper Eleven, by John H. Casey, Professor of Journalism of the University of Oklahoma; and John L. McCarty as winner of the Baylor University Award for outstanding service ot his community through his newspaper.

Successful journalists who attended school at W. T. and were co-workers with Wells and McCarty on The Prairie, include Olin Hinkle, editor, The Pampa Daily News; Frank Hill, editor, Lynn County News; Jerry Malin, sports editor, News-Globe, Amarillo; Rankin Dow, former sports editor, The Lubbock Avalanche Journal; Ed Gerald, Assistant Professor of Journalism at Missouria University; Ross Buckner, former editor, Childress Index; Nita Martin, feature writer; and J. Evetts Haley, historian at University of Texas.

W. T. can be justly proud of this group of journalists, two of whom recently received rewards which added considerable honor and prestige to Panhandle journalism.

R. L. Lester of Harlingen, Texas, was here a few days the past week visiting at the parental L. T. Lester home.
